

Chris,

I would like to recognize Chris Yorke for his hard work and dedication over the last eight years as a Best Buy associate for the Reston store. Chris is a walking testament of what it means to wear the blue with pride. The man never has a bad day. He's there for his fellow associates. He adds value to the store. He comes to work on time and remains busy until his shift is done. He takes the initiative to take care of matters. He participates at the AM meetings and is always willing to lend a hand to his fellow associates. Although he's not a member of the leadership team, he's a inspiration to us all. He was there eight years ago when they cut the yellow ribbon to open the store. People have come and gone, but Chris remains a constant figure in the store. He will continue to be there for many years to come. He is a individual that has produced extraordinary results, while demonstrating high values. Chris is the pride and joy of Reston.

Sincerely
Michael Zucker
